

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF PUERTO RICO

YOUR NAME,

Plaintiff

v.

DEFENDANT(S) NAME(S),

Defendant(s)

CIVIL NO.

COMPLAINT

I. Statement of Jurisdiction

Explain the basis or reason your case is being filed in this federal court.

II. Statement of the Parties

List the name and address of each plaintiff and defendant in separate paragraphs.

III. Statement of Claim(s)

State the claims or allegations that you are making against the defendant(s). Place each allegation in a short, clearly-written paragraph.

IV. Statement of Relief

State what relief you are seeking from the court. This can be money or something you want the judge to make the defendant do or stop doing. This information is usually written in the last paragraph of the complaint.

V. Jury Demand

If you believe you are entitled to a trial by jury, you must so indicate in a separate paragraph following the Statement of Relief.

Date:

Your Signature _____

Name typed or printed

Address

Telephone Number

Facsimile Number

e-Mail Address