Memorandum and Order Regarding Interim Payments for Representation by Counsel Appointed Under the Criminal Justice Act

Pursuant to §230.73.10 of the “Guidelines for Administering the CJA and Related Statutes”, the Court respectfully requests the approval of the filing of one interim voucher for services rendered under the Criminal Justice Act, in any case in which the attorney has worked for over six (6) months. This temporary order is issued due to the passage of Hurricane Maria, its aftermath, and the anticipated hardship on counsel due to the lack of power and damage to the communication infrastructure. This order will remain in place through November 30, 2017.
