

Scott P. Cragg
Crystal Reef, LLC
Scott.Cragg@CrystalReefLLC.com

Mr. Cragg is a consultant to both industry and Government in information technology strategy, operations, oversight, compliance and transformation. Following an exceptional career in the Federal Government as a C-Level executive spanning several Federal verticals Mr. Cragg established Crystal Reef LLC to support an array of industry initiatives. His current engagements include a US DoJ Court Ordered Decree, IT operations and development at the Securities and Exchange Commission and several other strategic initiatives.

Mr. Cragg accrued broad experience as a Federal C Level Executive serving as the CIO Secret Service, CTO/CIO at the Federal Retirement Thrift Investment Board, Deputy CIO at the Department of Veterans Affairs, CIO National Geospatial-Intelligence Agency, and the Deputy Assistant Secretary Technical Services, Department of Housing and Urban Development. He began his career as an Aerospace engineer with the US Navy in Carrier Aviation as the EA-6B Chief Engineer, APM Navy/Marine Corps aviation GPS, Laser Counter Measures, and Chemical/Biological Warfare Aircrew Life Support Systems. His Direct leadership of technology organizations, National Level programs and transformational initiatives includes strategic and operational outcomes in; IT and Architecture strategic planning, Electronic Health Record Innovation, the White House Presidential Community of Interest (in IT), Health Care Open Source Ecosystem Governance and development, Law Enforcement IT transformation, enterprise hardening. Court ordered monitoring and numerous implementations of process reengineering, oversight & compliance.

Mr. Cragg holds a BS in Aerospace Engineering from Boston University and a Masters Degree in Engineering Administration from George Washington University. Scott is a Fed 100 recipient for his leadership of Program Management improvement initiatives in Government and holds multiple Defense Acquisition Workforce Improvement Act Certifications, has completed the Intelligence Community Senior Leadership Course and the Defense Acquisition University Program Managers Course. Scott is also a recipient of the Federal 100 Award. In his spare time he referees collegiate and youth lacrosse.