

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF PUERTO RICO

NOTICE OF THE CLERK NO. 19-15

DISTRICT COURT CLOSED ON TUESDAY SEPTEMBER 24, 2019
DUE TO THE IMMINENT PASSING OF TROPICAL DEPRESSION KAREN

Chief Judge Gustavo A. Gelpí, and the Chairperson of the Facilities Security Committee, District Judge Aida M. Delgado-Colón, inform that, due to the current trajectory of Tropical Depression Karen, and in order to ensure the safety of all court personnel and the public, the Clemente Ruiz-Nazario U.S. Courthouse in Hato Rey and the José V. Toledo U.S. Courthouse in Old San Juan, along with all district court dependencies, will be closed on Tuesday September 24, 2019.

District Court operations and services to the public within the Clerk's Office and the U.S. Probation Office are expected to resume on Wednesday September 25, 2019.

The United States Attorneys' Office, law enforcement agencies and the members of the Bar are on notice that the duty Magistrate Judge remains available on regular duty schedule.

All members of the Bar and public are encouraged to access the Court's CM/ECF electronic filing system for updated information on re-scheduled hearings and the District Court's website at <http://www.prd.uscourts.gov>.

In San Juan, Puerto Rico, this 23rd day of September 2019.
