

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF PUERTO RICO

NOTICE FROM THE CLERK
NO. 19-05

NEW DEPUTY CHIEF U.S. PROBATION OFFICER
FOR THE DISTRICT OF PUERTO RICO

The Chief Judge and Judges of the United States District Court for the District of Puerto Rico announce that U.S. Probation Officer Ray K. Rivera has been selected by Chief U.S. Probation Officer Luis O. Encarnación, with the Court's endorsement, as the new Deputy Chief U.S. Probation Officer for the District of Puerto Rico.

Ray has served in the U.S. Probation Office since 2011. His educational background, as well as his solid knowledge and understanding in Evidence Based Practices, experience as STARR: National Coach/District Coordinator/Lead Coach and his participation as a faculty member for the FJC Evidence Based Practice Supervisor's Program, are assets that strengthen the U.S. Probation Office's Senior Management Team.

The Court congratulates Ray for this outstanding achievement.

In San Juan, Puerto Rico, this 22nd day of May 2019.
