

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF PUERTO RICO

NOTICE FROM THE
CLERK NO. 20-15

NOVEMBER 14, 2020 FALL FEDERAL BAR EXAMINATION ANNOUNCEMENT AND REGISTRATION PROCESS

The United States District Court of Puerto Rico (“USDCPR”) announces that the fall edition of the Federal Bar Examination (“FBE”) will take place on Saturday, November 14, 2020 at 9:00AM at the Interamerican University School of Law. To ensure that the testing area complies with all social distancing and safety requirements, there will be a limited amount of spaces for interested applicants.

Applicants registered for the postponed April 2020 FBE will be contacted by the Clerk’s Office and provided the option of registering for the November 14, 2020 FBE or deferring their registration to the April 2021 FBE. Applicants are required to inform their decision to the Clerk’s Office via email no later than August 21, 2020. Applicants that do not inform their chosen option within the allotted time will forfeit their space and FBE fee.

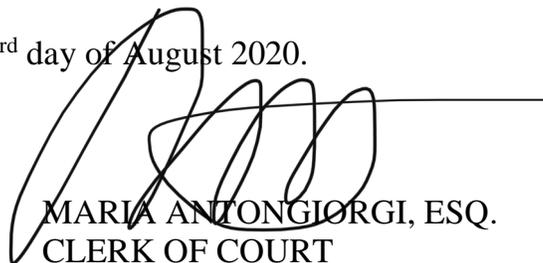

The registration process for the November 14, 2020 FBE for all other applicants will begin on Monday August 24, 2020. Interested applicants can submit their application, along with a Good Standing Certificate and FBE fee payment in person at the USDCPR Clerk’s Office in the Federico Degetau Office Building in Hato Rey<sup>1</sup> or via regular mail. Once registration reaches the maximum number of available spaces, the Clerk’s Office will not accept additional applications.
