

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF PUERTO RICO

IN RE: USSG PART A AND PART B,
SUBPART 1 OF AMENDMENT 821

MISC. NO. 23-mc-565 (RAM)

PETITIONS FOR SENTENCING REDUCTION BASED ON THE
AMENDMENTS TO THE GUIDELINES FOR CRIMINAL HISTORY MADE
RETROACTIVE BY THE UNITED STATES
SENTENCING COMMISSION AND
EFFECTIVE NOVEMBER 1, 2023.

AMENDMENT TO THE ADMINISTRATIVE DIRECTIVE
REGARDING AMENDMENT 821

On November 9, 2023, the District Court issued the Administrative Directive Regarding Amendment 821 (the "Administrative Directive"). Pursuant to the Administrative Directive, the Clerk of Court must automatically refer Amendment 821 Motions to a United States Magistrate Judge for initial screening.

The District Court hereby amends the Administrative Directive to designate Magistrate Judge Marcos E. López to conduct this initial screening. In the absence or unavailability of Magistrate Judge López, the initial screening will be referred to Magistrate Judge Marshal D. Morgan.

This Amendment shall enter into effect February 21, 2025.

In San Juan, Puerto Rico, this 7th day of February, 2025.
