

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF PUERTO RICO

NOTICE FROM THE CLERK
NO. 20-27

Important Notice regarding Zoom Application

The US District Court for the District of Puerto Rico (“USDCPR”) hereby informs its bar members, government agencies, public and press of the following Zoom “Important Notice”:

Important Notice: By January 15th, 2021, please ensure that you have updated your Network & Firewall configurations with our additional IP ranges. Failure to add these additional IP ranges may result in issues starting and joining Zoom. Please click here (<https://support.zoom.us/hc/en-us/articles/360049553511>) for a full list of the IP ranges used or visit our Status Page (<https://status.zoomgov.com/>).

The USDCPR notes that it’s not responsible nor able to provide any additional information or technical support regarding this matter. For further information or support, bar members or any technical support specialist must contact Zoom technical support directly. <https://support.zoom.us/hc/en-us/articles/201362003>

In San Juan, Puerto Rico, this 3rd day of December 2020.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "MAA", with a long horizontal line extending to the right.
